One Last Postcard Reminder

Salt Lake City, Utah -- In addition to media notices during the summer and fall of this year, Utah vehicle owners are getting one final reminder. Beginning next week, a new postcard will be mailed, reminding people to register their vehicles AND sign up for an email reminder.

Vehicle registration renewals have been down since the beginning of August when the Division of Motor Vehicles stopped sending courtesy reminder postcards. State officials are concerned that some vehicles could be impounded. DMV Director Monte Roberts says notice was given earlier this year about the end of the program. "We made the hard decision to stop sending the reminder postcards due to budget cuts."

With the increase of registrations in arrears, the decision was made to send out one last postcard to advise citizens to go to: DMV.UTAH.GOV to sign up for an email notification or renew online at renewalexpress.com. Another option is to visit an On-The-Spot station to sign up and pay for the registration.

"Whatever the reason a registration has not been completed we just don't want people getting caught and having to pay fines," says Roberts.

Important Information About Your Utah Motor Vehicle Registration

Has your vehicle registration expired?

- ▶ Check the tags on your license plate to be sure!
- ▶ If your tags are expired, see Renewal Express (go to dmv.utah.gov, click "E-SERVICES" and "RENEWAL EXPRESS"), or go to an On-the-SPOT renewal station.

WARNING: Driving or parking an unregistered vehicle on public streets could result in tickets or impound.

Renewal Notices:

The Utah DMV no longer sends renewal notices by postal mail. Reminders are now sent by email.
