Dear Governor, Legislators and Interested Citizens:

We present herewith the Annual Report of the Utah State Tax Commission for fiscal year 1984-85. This report is made in compliance with Utah Code Ann. §59-5-46 (1953). Unlike most tax commissions or revenue departments in the nation, the Utah State Tax Commission has comprehensive responsibility either to collect or administer almost all of Utah's major revenue sources. For example, the State Tax Commission oversees the collection of sales, corporate and personal income, property and motor vehicle taxes. Therefore the data included in this report represent a wide-angle view of the Utah state tax system.

This report follows a similar format as that used last year. Our intent is to concentrate on the taxes we are charged to collect and our experience in meeting that responsibility. The report is, therefore, organized according to the individual taxes in effect in the State of Utah. One change, however, that has been made is the inclusion of information regarding legislative and rule changes for each major tax. Historical information relating to each tax has been included in an appendix at the back of the Tax by Tax Update section. We believe the information made available through this approach will be of interest and benefit to decision-makers and citizens of the State.

During the fiscal year covered by this report, the Commission put into place reorganization and redirection of the agency. These changes are described in the Organization Overview of this report.

We appreciate the opportunity to share this information with you. The Tax Commission and its staff look forward to serving the State of Utah and its citizens in the future.

Respectfully,

Mark K. Buchi
Chairman

ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW

ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW

The Utah State Tax Commission is a constitutional body headed by four Commissioners who are appointed by the Governor with the consent of the Senate. The Commissioners' terms are set by statute at four years and one Commissioner's term expires each year. The Commission appoints an Executive Director in consultation with the Governor and with the Senate's consent. Salary ranges for the Commissioners and the Executive Director are set by the Legislature.

The Commission's primary responsibility is the administration and supervision of the State's tax laws. Through the Executive Director, the Commission administers a department of almost seven hundred employees organized in seven divisions. The Commissioners set policy and promulgate rules to guide the divisions in interpreting the laws they are charged to administer.

The Commission also functions as the State Board of Equalization to equalize real and personal property valuations. The Board may issue orders to correct valuations on property which has been improperly assessed. In addition, the Commissioners perform quasi-judicial functions in hearing formal and informal appeals, and requests for waiver of penalty and interest in matters involving taxes administered by its divisions. The Commission also hears appeals from decisions of county boards of equalization.

The 1983 session of the Utah Legislature enacted House Bill 315, which reorganized the Tax Commission, created the position of Executive Director and called for the development of a management plan to describe the organizational arrangement of Commission functions. The bill established professional qualifications for Commissioners and required a composite of professional skills and backgrounds among the Commissioners including accounting, auditing, property assessment, management, law, finance and basic knowledge of excise, income, sales and corporate taxation. In addition, each member must have knowledge of the theory and practice of ad valorem taxation and have had executive and administrative experience.

The position of Executive Director was filled during 1984 and the Commission has drafted a management plan which identifies the responsibilities of the Director and those of the Commissioners. The plan gives responsibility of day to day management to the Executive Director and Division Directors. The Commission concentrates on developing policy and promulgating rules which guide the divisions in interpreting the laws they are charged to administer. In addition, the management plan outlines the development of a comprehensive human resource management function and an integrated planning and budgeting process.

The Commission has established the Internal Audit Unit called for by House Bill 315 and has hired an additional internal auditor with specialized computer skills to permit the Commission not only to audit cash management, but also to evaluate systems and procedures.

The Tax Commission and members of the Appeals Unit have acted on over 2,400 appeals this year and expect to handle more next year. All appeals must be acted on by the Commissioners, however, under the provisions of House Bill 315, many of the hearings are conducted by designated law trained hearing officers. In addition, the Commissioners have reviewed and made decisions on approximately 5,000 requests for waiver of penalty and interest imposed on late or deficient tax returns.

The Commission has implemented the following significant organizational and procedural changes in the agency since 1983. Several divisions were consolidated and independent functions were grouped into divisions or eliminated. For example, the Commission, shortly after taking office, created the Division of Data Processing, grouping under single direction the functions of data entry, systems development, programming and computer operations. The new division is developing the data processing system effectively. Through centralized effort, software and hardware support has been developed to not only keep up with technological change, but also to respond to changes in executive and statutory requirements placed upon the Commission.

In addition, a major reorganization of property tax functions in 1983 combined the state assessed, personal property and local valuation activities into one division. The consolidation has brought about greater sharing of property tax information. By sharing support staff resources and integrating the information systems, the Property Tax Division is functioning more efficiently than the several divisions were before consolidation. The Property Tax Division remains responsible for training and supervising county assessors; conducting the bi-annual sales-assessment ratio study on which the Commission bases factoring orders to ensure uniform assessments within the State; providing uniform assessments of mines, utilities, motor and rail carriers; and issuing personal property valuation guidelines. Acquisition of several microcomputers has already greatly enhanced the appraisal of centrally assessed entities. As more sophisticated software is developed, higher quality appraisals are expected.

The Administrative Services Division was created to integrate the related functions of budgeting, purchasing, personnel, payroll, inventory and space control, contract management and other administrative support functions. The Division is functioning as planned, providing the necessary support to the other divisions.

The creation of the Operations Division was the result of the merger of Revenue Accounting, Collections and Central Services Divisions. The new division is also responsible for the account verification functions that were being carried out by individual auditors in the Audit Division and for establishing accounting controls for all financial transactions within the Tax Commission. The following efficiencies have resulted from this merger:

- 1) An increase in processing capacity due to consolidation of similar functions;
- 2) The depositing of tax revenues in a more timely manner resulting in a $300,000 increase in interest income;
- 3) Expeditious processing of tax refunds saving the State over $100,000 in potential interest payments;
- 4) An enhanced reporting system resulting in an increase in timely collections;
- 5) A reduction of correspondence backlog from over 10,000 items to approximately 2,000 items with an expected zero backlog by March 1, 1986;
- 6) The answering of all new correspondence within 30 days; and
- 7) The extension of front-end review to business returns with a significant reduction in accounts suspended for minor errors.

The Commission's order to consolidate the administrative support functions in the Motor Vehicle Business Administration (MVBA) and the Motor Vehicles Division has been partially implemented. While the MVBA Administrator reports directly to the Executive Director for the investigative, regulatory and law enforcement functions of MVBA, the Division of Motor Vehicles provides clerical, data processing, budget and accounting, purchasing and other administrative support for the professional members of the MVBA staff.

The Motor Vehicle Business Administration Division has instituted a participative management program and an informal quality circle. Products of these programs are:

- 1) Improved facility utilization;
- 2) Automation of tasks saving overtime costs;
- 3) A sharp increase in criminal accounts filed; and
- 4) A case load increase of 46% due to efforts of MVBA investigators.

In response to increased legislative appropriations for staffing and out-of-state travel, the Auditing Division has significantly increased state revenues. Additional staffing and a higher concentration of audit man hours on large out-of-state firms caused a 24 percent increase in audit adjustments (93 percent of which are deficiency assessments). The Audit Division's reported $39.3 million in audit adjustments for fiscal year 1984-85 more than doubles the $15.6 million in adjustments recorded in fiscal year 1981-82 (see following table).

A major effort of the Commissioners has been to orient the work of the divisions into a team effort. Coordination between the Property Tax and Audit Divisions has enabled the Commission to take advantage of the auditors' skills to determine the income streams that are used in the valuation of mines, railroads and public utilities. Computer programs analyzing retail sales growth developed by the Economic and Statistical Unit have been modified to provide timely information to the Operations Division regarding large sales taxpayers who fail to file a return, and regarding payments by bankrupt taxpayers. Additionally, personal property auditors are being trained to check for compliance with all tax laws when conducting field audits. Likewise, auditors from the Auditing Division are adding personal property to the ad valorem tax rolls.

The Commission has made notable progress in the use of computer systems. Many personal computers have been installed with appropriate software. Plans are to further expand this capability. Several new software systems are in various stages of design, programming and/or implementation. A system to control the progress of appeals and their status is operational in addition to a Document Control and Tracking system. Some major systems will not be complete for about three years. When this is accomplished the Commission will experience a significant increase in operational efficiency and effectiveness.

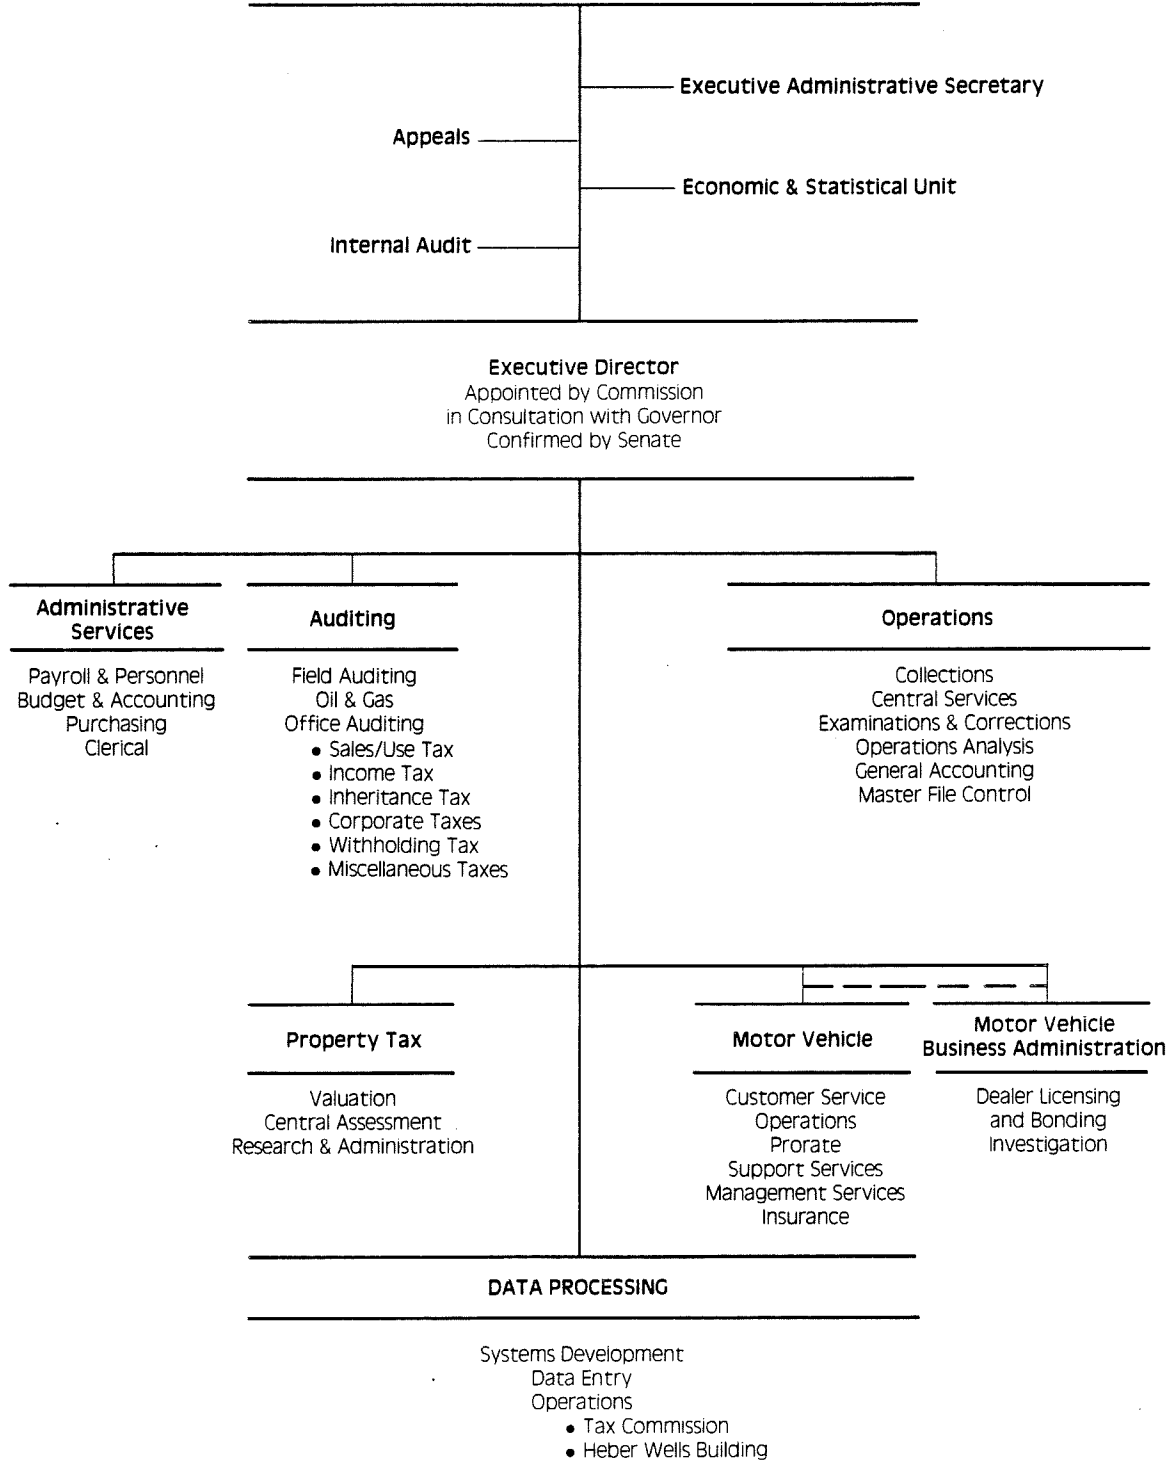

During the past year the Commission and the Executive Director have personally visited with most county elected officials in their respective county seats. The fact that the Commission has taken the time to visit with county officials has elicited many positive comments from local governments and has resulted in closer working relationships and improved communications.

This year a successful motivation and tempo has been established. Following the Commission's lead, Tax Commission employees have a better knowledge of the procedures necessary to execute tasks in an efficient and professional manner, and they are also receiving recognition from management for exemplary performance. In the final analysis this attainment may be the greatest accomplishment of the Commission.

OVERVIEW OF COLLECTION AND DISTRIBUTION OF REVENUE

OVERVIEW OF COLLECTION AND DISTRIBUTION OF REVENUE

Summaries of historical data are useful in estimating future revenues, analyzing impacts of past legislation, as well as being indicative of how the economy fared. Figure 1 in this section shows the distribution of state revenues among the major funds. Table 1 compares major sources of revenue collected by the Tax Commission for the past ten years. Figure 2 charts the percentage of revenues collected by major funds from each tax source. Individual income, sales and use, and motor fuel taxes dominate the four major funds. Table 2 separates gross from net collections, identifying refunds and adjustments. Refunds are a major factor in estimating the individual and corporate income (franchise) taxes. Finally, Table 3 lists Utah population by county in order to assist researchers in computing per capita tax collection data.

THE ECONOMIC & STATISTICAL UNIT

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ECONOMIC AND STATISTICAL UNIT

The Economic and Statistical Unit of the Tax Commission compiles and publishes statistical reports reflecting the history of tax revenues in Utah and also projects future tax revenues based on models and simulations. These reports are prepared and published under the general powers and duties granted to the Tax Commission by the Legislature to provide information that will assist efforts to equalize the burden of taxation in the State.<sup>1</sup>

Several major research reports were published in 1985. The first of these reports, The Mineral Production Withholding Tax, studies the impact of mineral production withholding on increasing state tax revenues. The second publication, entitled The Impact of the President's Tax Proposal in Utah, analyzes the effect of President Reagan's Proposed Tax Changes on individual federal and state income tax liabilities in Utah. Another report, 1985 Forecast Utah Retail Sales, Services & Business Equipment Purchases, utilized a recently constructed econometric model to forecast taxable retail sales, services and business purchases. The fourth study, The Incidence of Property Taxation in Utah: 1969 to 1984, examines who pays the burden of property taxation in Utah for the period 1969 to 1984. Data on market value and tax shares, as well as effective tax rates are presented by classes of property in the locally-assessed and centrally-assessed divisions (refer to the property tax section of this report for further information). A fifth report entitled, Utah Statistics of Income Return Year 1982 was also completed this year. This report compiles data from IRS records of taxpayers with Utah addresses who filed 1982 federal returns (refer to the individual income tax section of this report). The last report, Hotel Sales, Room Rents and Transient Room Taxes in Utah, 1978-1985, gives data on the hotel industry for the period indicated (refer to the transient room tax section of this report).

THE MINERAL PRODUCTION WITHHOLDING TAX

The mineral production withholding tax was enacted by the Utah State Legislature in 1982 under House Bill 92. This law requires that mineral producers withhold four percent of every payment made to individuals from mineral production royalty proceeds, with certain stated exceptions (UCA 59-29-1 et seq.). The tax is to be applied as a credit against either the personal income tax or the corporate income tax.

The purpose of the withholding tax was to assist in enforcement efforts and to increase state tax revenues. Prior to the enactment of this legislation there was a great deal of tax avoidance on the part of non-resident individuals receiving royalty proceeds from the production of minerals in Utah. Apparently, many of these individuals failed to file Utah state income tax returns.

At the time the legislation was passed it was anticipated that state income tax revenues could be increased by 3.5 to 4 million dollars annually. The mineral production withholding tax has grown more rapidly than had been expected. In calendar year 1982 withholdings from mineral production were $2,507,099.85 from 42,393 royalty recipients. In calendar year 1983 withholding had grown to $9,427,130.73 and 52,520 royalty recipients were identified<sup>2</sup>. Much of this increase represents increased collections as a result of these stronger enforcement measures.

Exemptions to the mineral production withholding tax are granted in a variety of instances. Among those who are exempted from withholding taxes on royalties are registered charitable organizations, Indian tribes and the U.S. government. Since such persons or organizations are not required to pay income taxes, they are therefore not subject to measures designed to increase compliance with income tax statutes. Owner-operators or firms which file a consolidated corporation franchise tax return with owner-operators may receive exemptions. This may account for the fact that: 1) several important mineral types are absent from breakdowns of withholding tax receipts and 2) the amount of mineral production subject to the withholding tax is small relative to total mineral production.

Estimates of the share of mineral production subject to the withholding tax were derived from figures of net operating revenues. According to these estimates only about 12 percent of Utah oil and gas production was subject to withholding in 1983. Less than 7 percent of production from non-metalliferous mines was subject to withholding and an even smaller percentage of production from metalliferous mines was subject to withholding. In 1983 withholding on all mineral production in Utah was only $9,427,131. At a 4 percent withholding tax rate this represents a withholding tax base of $235,678,278 or only 9 percent of net operating revenues from all mineral production in 1983.

THE IMPACT OF THE PRESIDENT'S TAX PROPOSAL IN UTAH

President Reagan's focus on the need for change in the current federal income tax system underscores a significant problem faced by Utah lawmakers and tax administrators. There have been no significant changes made in the Utah individual income tax system since 1973 when it was first linked to the federal system. The current tax bracket structure, which consists of six tax brackets ranging from \$1,500 to \$7,500 and over in \$1,500 increments, has remained unchanged. With wages and prices more than doubling since that time over two-thirds of Utah taxpayers fall into the highest tax bracket, with marginal rates of  $7 \frac{3}{4}$  percent. In addition, Utah's personal exemption amount has not changed and remains at \$750. Such a situation has resulted in horizontal inequity over time (those with equal capacity to pay, paying differing amounts in tax) if one compares similarly situated taxpayers in 1973 with those in 1985.

An Individual Income Tax Simulation Model (ISIM) was constructed from 10,936 randomly stratified returns which were benchmarked and simulated to 1986 income levels. The ISIM impacts assume no action is taken by the state legislature.

ISIM estimates that federal individual income tax revenue will drop from $1.648 to $1.532 billion under the President's proposal in 1986-1987. Federal individual income tax liabilities for Utahns would drop by $115.5 million for 1986 returns. In contrast, the model estimates that, if the Reagan plan passes, revenue from Utah State individual income taxes will rise by over 22 percent to $632 million from $517 million under current law. In other words, state individual income taxes would rise by $115.0 million. Utah income taxes would rise since: 1) federal taxes, which are deductible will be reduced by 7 percent decreasing federal tax deductions by $115 million and 2) itemized deductions will fall, raising adjusted gross income by $1.456 billion as itemized deductions would be repealed or modified. All other things being equal, tax revenue from Utah state individual income taxes will increase significantly if the Reagan plan is enacted.

The President's plan will not affect all taxpayers equally, however. While single Utah taxpayers will face lower tax liabilities, paying $24 million less in federal and state income taxes, married couples will face increased tax liabilities of $24.5 million.

As a whole, the Reagan plan is favorable to Utah. The deduction for charitable contributions is retained in its current form for those who itemize. To Utahns this is of no small significance since the average deduction for charitable contributions in Utah was $1,882 in 1982 compared to a national average of $1,000. Utahns, who tend to have a larger average family size, would also benefit from the proposed increase in the personal exemption (from $1,080 to $2,000). Utahns' average number of exemptions per return was 2.85 in 1982 compared to the U.S. average of 2.30.

Federal and state tax rates under both current law and Reagan's proposal were plotted up to $250,000 in adjusted gross income 1986 returns. A segmented regression analysis was performed to approximate the curve at three income levels: 1) $0 to $40,000, 2) $40,000 to $100,000 and 3) $100,000 and over. Three main conclusions can be drawn regarding the impact of President Reagan's proposal on federal and state tax rates:

- 1) The proposal, by narrowing the availability of deductions and reducing the number of tax brackets, significantly lowers the variation in tax rates, particularly among those with incomes greater than $100,000.
- 2) Although federal effective tax rates are lowered for all three income segments, the majority of the reduction in rates will be felt by those with incomes over $40,000. For those with incomes between $100,000 and $250,000 the tax rate drops from 27.38 to between 18.3 and 20.9 percent.
- 3) Overall, Utah state income taxes as a percentage of income will increase under the Reagan plan. Taxpayers with less than $40,000 income will see their state income tax rise from 4.01 percent to 4.90 percent of income. Taxpayers who earn annual incomes of $40,000 to $100,000 will have their effective tax rates increase from 3.85 to 4.72 percent. As a result of the reduction in the availability of itemized deductions, taxpayers with incomes over $100,000 will see their tax rates rise from 2.39 percent to 3.55 percent.

1985 FORECAST UTAH RETAIL SALES, SERVICES AND BUSINESS EQUIPMENT PURCHASES

In 1985 the Economic and Statistical Unit, using an econometric model it developed in 1984, forecast quarterly retail sales, services and business equipment purchases in several key sectors of the Utah economy. The model's performance in 1984 has proven to be fairly accurate. Its predicted growth for 1984 total taxable sales at 12 percent was only 2.7 percent less than actual total taxable sales of 14.7 percent. The model has, however, been respecified to improve the predictive power of the model in certain sectors. The 1985 model includes the use of seasonal adjustment factors, the use of the Utah "misery index" (the summations of the Utah unemployment rate and the U.S. inflation rate) as an important variable in retail durable goods sectors and information on the projected expenditure pattern of the Intermountain Power Project.

The 1985 forecast has also been adjusted to take into account the effects of the recent closure of the Kennecott Copper Mine and the passage of House Bill 103, which exempts purchases of manufacturing equipment for new or expanding operations from the sales and use tax after July 1, 1985. The Kennecott closure, by reducing overall wages and salaries in the state, affects most sectors in the sales tax model. Similarly, the reduction in supplies to the plant affects Utah's mining and wholesale trade sectors. The impact of House Bill 103, on the other hand, will be to reduce the taxable sales base in the manufacturing and construction sector.

Given the above adjustments, the model predicts an increase in total taxable retail sales, services and business equipment purchases of 3.4 percent for 1985. This is in contrast to the 1984 growth rate of 14.7 percent. With inflation remaining at 3.2 percent, the forecast real growth in total total taxable retail sales, services and business equipment purchases is small.

The forecast for individual sectors of the economy varies somewhat however. Business equipment and utility sales are expected to decline by 4 percent as a result of the Kennecott shutdown, the reduction in purchases by the Intermountain Power Project and the passage of House Bill 103. Retail sales are expected to grow by 5.7 percent in 1984. Sales of motor vehicles are expected to grow almost 10 percent and sales by eating and drinking establishments should rise 14 percent.

The retail sales sector is predicted to expand by only 5.7 percent compared to 12.5 percent growth in 1984. This predicted slowdown in consumer sales is attributable to increases in the Utah misery index along with a leveling off of wage and employment growth. Utah's service sector, on the other hand should grow 15.3 percent in 1985.

Not enough information on 1985 actual performance is available to evaluate the success of the 1985 model for all four quarters. We do, however, have information for the first two quarters of 1985. During the first quarter, total retail sales, services and business equipment purchases grew by only 4.8 percent, somewhat less than the 8.1 percent growth anticipated by us. Declining consumer confidence, high levels of consumer debt and delays in IRS tax refund checks hurt the retail sales sector during the first quarter. Actual first quarter retail sales growth of 5.7 percent fell short of our forecast of 11.2 percent. Likewise, service sector growth of 13 percent was less than the predicted 18.0 percent. Our forecast of modest 1.9 percent growth for business equipment purchases was fairly close to actual purchases of 1.4 percent.

The model's forecast for the second quarter of 1985 proved to be fairly accurate with actual retail sales, services and business equipment purchases declining by 0.6 percent, 1.6 percent less than the predicted growth of 1 percent. With the closure of Kennecott and the decline in purchases by the Intermountain Power Project, business equipment purchases were expected to decrease by 7.8 percent. Actual purchases decreased by 8.6 percent. The service sector failed to perform as anticipated. This sector showed no growth during the second quarter of 1985. We had anticipated a 15 percent growth rate during this period.

Legislative Changes:

HB 103 Sales and Use Tax Exemption for Manufacturing Machinery and Equipment -- Exempts from the sales and use tax leased or purchased machinery and equipment for use in new or expanding operations by manufacturers with standard industrial classifications between 2000 and 3999. Equipment to replace or upgrade existing operations is not included. The Tax Commission shall have the right to define "new or expanding manufacturing operation." Also extends after June 30, 1986 the sales and use tax exemptions for pollution control equipment.

Legislative Fiscal Note: The bill could reduce State and Local sales tax revenues as follows:

General Fund Fee	($4,000,000 to $6,000,000)
General Fund Restricted	($ 112,000 to $ 176,000)
Other Collections	($ 125,000 to $ 140,000)
Local Sales Tax	($ 983,000 to $1,544,000)

The portion of the reduced revenues or increased expenditures that will be offset by expansion of the manufacturing base of the state cannot be estimated.

Amends 26-13-27, 26-13-28, 59-15-6 and 59-16-4.
Effective date: July 1, 1985.

SB 97 Water and Flood Financing -- Changes the sales and use tax distribution; appropriates for Fiscal Year 1984-85 $55,000,000 from the General Fund, $6,000,000 from Certificates of Participation and also appropriates $35,000,000 from the General Fund for Fiscal Year 1985-86 all to the Water Development and Flood Mitigation Reserve Account. Appropriates $20,350,000 from the Water Development and Flood Mitigation Reserve Account to flood mitigation studies and projects; declares that all interest earned from the Reserve Account and any money not appropriated by September 1, 1985 shall be deposited in the Water Resources Conservation and Development Account; extends the duration of the Disaster Relief Board; exempts dedicated flood mill levies from the 106 percent property tax limitation; authorizes the Board of Water Resources to enter into interest buy down and credit enhancement agreements and to transfer money to DOT. This bill also changes the population - point of sale percentages back to 25- 75 from July 1, 1985 to December 31, 1989.

Legislative Fiscal Note: The act changes sales tax distribution between the state and local governments by delaying the increase of local sales taxes from 7/8 to 1 percent. Local governments will receive a 2/64 percent increase in sales tax revenues, while 6/64 percent will be dedicated to the Water Resources Conservation and Development Fund for a period of 3 1/2 years. This will generate approximately $60 million.

PROPERTY TAX

Property Tax Division

A major reorganization of the Property Tax Division was affected during 1984. Three previously existing divisions (State-Assessed Property, Local Valuation and Personal Property) were merged into one division - Property Tax. Benefits were gained in terms of both administrative efficiency and cost effectiveness. As part of the streamlining effort, sections housed at the Connor Street facility were moved to the Heber M. Wells Building. This consolidated the Division into one office.

The decision reached by the Utah State Supreme Court in the Rio Algom Suit had major impacts on the operation of the Property Tax Division. With respect to equal assessment between locally-assessed and centrally-assessed property, the Court ruled that the roll back of locally-assessed property values to 1978 levels was improper. In response, the 1984 State Legislature enacted House Bill 6 which eliminated the roll back to 1978 levels. Locally-assessed real properties were factored up from 1978 to 1984 levels using the United States Department of Commerce Composite Construction Cost Index. The Legislature authorized an allowance of 20 percent for intangible considerations (brokerage fees, closing costs, value of financing terms). House Bill 6 also required the Property Tax Division to conduct an assessment/sales ratio study during 1984 to determine assessment levels, which would provide a basis for issuing factoring orders to insure inter-county equity.

These changes affected the area of levy limitation as expressed in Utah Code Ann. Section §59-5-111: If the assessed value of property in a county increases by more than 10 percent within a year (exclusive of new growth) then overall spending by tax districts is limited to a 6 percent increase except there is no limitation on the basic school levy and debt. Rules clarifying levy limitation were adopted by the Commission to accomodate the changing property tax environment.

The Tax Commission is responsible for enforcement of all property tax laws within the state of Utah. It carries out this responsibility through the Property Tax Division's overview of local assessment functions and through the Division's appraisal of property for which the Commission has sole jurisdiction over mines, railroads, utilities and other centrally-assessed properties. County assessors are responsible for appraising primary residential property at 15% of present fair cash value. All other properties, valued by the county, are assessed at 20% of reasonable fair cash value. Residential property was assessed at a rate lower than other property types for the first time in 1983. This became possible with the passage of a constitutional amendment (Proposition 1) in November of 1982 which changed the former constitutional requirement that all property be assessed at a uniform level.

(Applicable statutes: Sections §§59-5-46, 59-5-3, 59-5-1)

Valuation Section

The Valuation Section of the Property Tax Division monitors assessment levels of county-assessed real property by annually conducting assessment/sales ratio studies. County assessors are required to maintain a specific assessment level within their county to insure that contributions to the Uniform School Fund remain equitable throughout the State. The Valuation Section also provides personal property assessment guidelines.

Centrally-Assessed Section

Properties of public utilities, transportation companies, mining companies and claims, as well as oil and gas companies are assessed annually by the Centrally-Assessed Section. Public utility and transportation companies include airlines, gas distribution, transmission pipelines (both oil and gas), power, railroad, car and bus, telephone, terminal and water companies. Such properties may traverse both county and state boundaries.

(Applicable statutes: Section §59-5-3)

A. Assessment of Public Utilities & Railroad Companies

The market value of public utilities and railroad companies, which have operating properties in more than one state, is determined by the "unit value" concept. This concept was developed through cooperation among the various concerned states and it values an entire interstate operation as a single unit which is then allocated between the concerned states. A state's unit value is then assessed at 20 percent of market value as mandated by Section §59-7-13, Utah Code Ann. (effective 1-1-86, the assessment ratio is 100%). Next, the remaining assessed values (having been equalized at 20 percent) are apportioned to the various taxing districts within each county based on the physical location of the properties.

(Applicable statutes: Sections §§59-5-3, 59-5-1, 59-6-1)

B. Assessment of Mines, Oil and Gas Companies

Real property of mines, gas and oil companies are physically appraised to arrive at the market value. This value is then assessed at 20% of market value (effective 1-1-86, the assessment ratio is 100%). In addition to assessment of the physical properties of these operations, mining, gas and oil companies are assessed on their net proceeds (metalliferous), net income (nonmetalliferous) and value at the well (oil and gas).

(Applicable statutes: Sections §§59-5-3, 59-5-1, 59-5-57, 59-5-58, 59-5-59, 59-5-60, 59-5-61, 59-5-64, 59-6-1)

C. Annexation

Cities, towns and special taxing districts are responsible for reporting all annexations to the Tax Commission. Current boundaries are necessary in apportioning values of centrally-assessed property among taxing districts.

ANNUAL REPORT: TRENDS IN VALUATION AND TAXES

Tables 12 and 13 indicate that from 1969 to 1984 the overall property tax base in Utah--the market value of all properties--grew at an average annual rate of almost 37 percent. This meant an expansion, in current dollar terms, from $8 billion in 1969 to close to $56 billion by 1984. The expansion in the tax base was unevenly divided. Locally-assessed properties, led by residential real and personal properties, increased at an annual rate of 39 percent per year. Centrally-assessed properties grew at about 27 percent per year. At the same time, property tax collections failed to keep pace with escalating property values. Tables 14 and 15 indicate that total taxes on property increased at a rate of 12 percent and 22 percent per year for centrally-assessed and locally-assessed properties, respectively.

Table 16 and Figure 6 show data on effective taxes. In general, centrally-assessed properties in 1984 incurred an average effective tax rate 55 percent greater than that applicable to locally-assessed properties. Metal mining was subjected to the highest rate of tax--3.20 percent in current dollars. At the other extreme, agricultural and other property paid the lowest rate of tax--0.78 percent in current dollars. Within the locally-assessed group, residential, and commercial and industrial properties paid an effective rate of tax in current dollars of 1.02 and 0.94 percent, respectively.

1985 has been a year in which Utah residential homeowners have expressed growing displeasure over escalations in, and the level of, real property taxes. In the extreme, some individuals have sought to limit increases in property taxes by advocating a Proposition 13-type amendment similar to the one passed by California voters in 1978. Examination of the historical setting reveals, for example, that total residential property tax collections have increased 409 percent from 1969 to 1984, with most of this increase being concentrated in the last seven years. Table 17, presenting estimates of the number of residential housing units in Utah, statewide average residential taxes, and average market values casts a different light on the issue.

As the table indicates, the average market value of residential dwelling units in Utah increased from just under $15,000 in 1969 to over $67,000 by 1984--a 350 percent increase. Over the same period, the average tax bill increased by 181 percent (an average of 11 percent per year) to a level of $647 per dwelling unit; i.e., while total real property taxes on residential units increased by over four hundred percent, average taxes per unit increased by less than half this percentage. While the dollar value of the tax base continued to expand due to rising housing prices, average tax collections failed to keep pace. The data indicate that average taxes were kept to moderate levels by an increase in new residential units which served to expand the tax base. Over the period from 1969 to 1984, Utah experienced a robust growth in new residential dwelling units. Residential dwelling units expanded by 81 percent--or just over 5 percent per year. This surge in the housing stock has not only kept property taxes (and increases in taxes) to reasonable levels, it has also kept housing affordable.

Legislative Changes:

SB 117 Income Tax Filing Penalties -- Revises the $50 penalty for late filing of returns. The $50 penalty will now apply to returns disclosing a refund only after a 90 day grace period has lapsed, and establishes the late penalty for such returns at one-half the refund amount or $50, whichever is less. The penalty for late filing of returns on incomes below the minimum state filing requirement is eliminated.

Legislative Fiscal Note: It is estimated that this bill will reduce revenues to the Uniform School Fund by approximately $25,000.

Amends 59-14a-92.

Effective date: retrospective operation to January 1, 1985.

- SB 206 Business and Energy Credit Amendments -- Provides for an extension and increase of the credit for installing a variety of renewable energy systems, including greater scope for business use of the credits.

Legislative Fiscal Note: This bill is expected to result in income tax energy credits of about $1,491,000 in 1985-86 and of $491,000 in 1986-87. The increased sales of energy systems might result in higher state income and sales tax revenues of $862,000 in calendar years 1985, 1986 and 1987.

Amends 59-14B-1 et. seq.

Effective date: retrospective to January 1, 1985.

- HB 90 Income Withholding Amendments -- Amends state income withholding law to comply with new federal laws. Provides for the withholding of an obligor's income when delinquent on child support for more than 30 days. Establishes method for service and notice to obligee and procedure for the obligee to appeal a mistake of fact.

Enacts 30-3.5-1 and repeals and reenacts 78-45d.

Effective date: July 1, 1985.

- HB 91 State Income Tax Intercept for Delinquent Child Support -- Allows the Department of Social Services to intercept the state income tax refund of a person who is delinquent in making child support payments.

Amends 59-14a-80.

Effective date: April 29, 1985.

Regulations/Rules adopted by the Tax Commission:

Do not include income from activities upon which the corporation is dependent or income which contributes to its economic enterprise as a whole in determining whether income is business or non-business income. If income is of a unitary nature it must be classified as business income.

Section 59-13-78(a) defines "business income" as income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations. In essence, all income which arises from the conduct of trade or business operations of a taxpayer is business income. For purposes of administration of the Uniform Division of Income for Tax Purposes Act, the income of the taxpayer is business income unless clearly classifiable as non-business income.

Legislative Changes:

HCR 25 Unitary Tax Resolution -- Advocates the Tax Commission adopt regulations to implement a "water's edge" unitary method of computing corporation franchise taxes. Such regulations should become operative when Congress passes necessary legislation for full disclosure by multinational corporations.

HB 202 Homeowner Association Corporate Tax -- Exempts certain nonprofit homeowner associations from the state corporate franchise tax.

Legislative Fiscal Note: The bill could reduce revenues by $15,000 per year.

Amends 59-13-4.

Effective date: retrospective to January 1, 1985.

SB 206 Business and Energy Credit Amendments -- Provides for an extension and increase of the credit for installing a variety of renewable energy systems, including greater scope for business use of the credits.

Legislative Fiscal Note: This bill is expected to result in income tax energy credits of about $1,491,000 in 1985-86 and of $491,000 in 1986-87. The increased sale of energy systems might result in higher state income and sales tax revenues of $862,000 in calendar years 1985, 1986 and 1987.

Amends 59-148-1 et seq.

Effective date: retrospective to January 1, 1985.

Regulations/Rules adopted by the Tax Commission:

Rule A12-02-F8A, Combined Reporting Required of Members of Affiliated Group Engaged in Unitary Business, was adopted on May 15, 1985. This regulation sets forth provisions under which the water's edge approach to unitary combined reporting for corporate tax purposes shall be applied in the State of Utah.

Effective and Operative Dates

HISTORICAL RATE AND BASE CHANGES

STATE SALES AND USE TAXES

October 1, 1984 - "Temporary" 1/2% increase made "permanent."

March 18, 1985 - Utah Code Ann. §59-15-4 and 59-16-3 set the state tax rate at 4 5/8% from October 1, 1983, through June 30, 1986; 4 38/64% from July 1, 1986 through December 31, 1989 and 4 1/2% from January 1, 1990, and thereafter.

Tax Base Changes and Effective Dates:

July 1, 1959 - Added subsection (e) including taxes on service repairs of tangible personal property.

May 14, 1963 - Exchanges of property redefined.

July 1, 1965 - Redefined again.

July 1, 1965 - Deleted (b) (2) which exempted electrical power plants owned by non-profit corporations from paying sales tax.

April 1, 1969 - Inserted "cleaning or washing" in subsection (e); added sub (h) which taxes leases or rentals of tangible personal property.

*All other citations refer to Utah Code Ann. §59-15-4.

May 8, 1973 - Exempted tangible property or services used in the construction or incorporated in pollution control facilities.

May 13, 1975 - Allowed a sales tax credit for taxpayers who prepay sales tax under the Resource Development Act to finance state-related public improvements.

April, 1976 - exempted sales of "medicine" i.e., prescription drugs. Reexempted sales from coin operated laundry or dry cleaning services.

July 1, 1979 - phased in exemption of sales of tangible personal property used or consumed primarily and directly in farming operations, specifically denying exemption to equipment, etc. used incidentally on farms. The exemption from sales tax was phased in as follows:

- 1) One percent on July 1, 1979;
- 2) Two percent on July 1, 1980;
- 3) Three percent on July 1, 1981; and
- 4) Total exemption on July 1, 1982.

July 1, 1980 - Extended sales and use tax exemption for air and water pollution control facilities to January 31, 1985.

May 10, 1981 - Provided for an exemption from sales and use tax on the sale of oxygen and stoma supplies used in medical treatment.

May 10, 1981 - Defined "motion picture exhibitor" and provided for exemption of sales of "commercials, motion picture films and video tapes by a producer, distributor or studio to a motion picture exhibitor, distributor or commercial television broadcaster."

April 1, 1983 - Provided an exemption from tax for certain items (food, beverages, candy, etc.) sold and dispersed from vending machines when proceeds do not exceed one dollar if the vendor or operator of the vending machine reports an amount equal to 120% of the cost of such items as "goods consumed" on their sales tax return.

May 10, 1983 - Section 59-15-4 of the Sales Tax Act was amended to exempt from Utah sales (and use) tax, the sale of "currency and coinage constituting legal tender of the United States or of a foreign nation, all sales of gold, silver, or platinum ingots, bars, medallions, or decorative coins, not constituting legal tender of any nation, with a gold, silver or platinum content of not less than 80%."

The exemption was effected by defining these items as not being tangible personal property. In this way, consumers cannot use a tax-free purchase of these items as a later trade for some taxable purchase.

May 10, 1983 - Section 59-15-6 of the Sales Tax Act was amended to provide for an exemption for the sale of "pre-recorded audio program tapes or records" by a producer, distributor or studio when sold to "commercial radio broadcasters." This bill corrects an apparent oversight of the exemption afforded television stations during the 1981 Legislative session. Blank (virgin) tapes or records purchased by radio broadcasters for in-house use would not be exempt from tax.

May 10, 1983 - Section 59-15-6 provided an exemption for "sales of food, beverages, dairy products, similar confections and related services to commercial airline carriers for in-flight consumption."

May 10, 1983 - Section 59-16-4 of the use tax law was amended to qualify and limit the exemption from use tax on items brought into Utah for use by non-residents. The use tax exemption will not apply to property purchased for use in Utah by a non-resident living and working in Utah.

This change was made primarily to prevent non-resident military and construction workers from going out of state (while living and working in Utah) to buy cars and then registering and using them in Utah without paying use tax.

July 1, 1984 - Sections 59-15-6 and 59-16-4 were amended to allow a sales and use tax exemption for five years beginning on July 1, 1984 on purchases of materials, equipment, and services used for new construction, expansion, or modernization of any mine, mill reduction works, smelter, refinery (excluding oil and gas), synthetic fuel processing and upgrading plant, rolling mill, coal washing plant or melting facility. This exemption applies only to amounts purchased during the year in excess of the first $500,000.00 of taxable material and services subject to sales or use tax.

July 1, 1984 - Sections 59-15-6 and 59-16-4 were amended to provide a sales and use tax exemption for all sales of parts and equipment installed in aircraft used primarily in scheduled interstate or foreign commerce. The exemption does not extend to service or labor charges for repair, cleaning or installation.

July 1, 1985 - Sections 59-15-6 and 59-16-4 were amended to exempt from sales and use taxes machinery and equipment purchased or leased by a manufacturer for use in new or expanding operations in any manufacturing facility in Utah. Normal operating replacement machinery and equipment were specifically excluded from the exemption.

July 1, 1985 - Sections 26-13-27 and 26-13-28 extended the sales and use tax exemption for pollution control equipment. The exemption expired on January 31, 1985 and is scheduled to be revived on July 1, 1986 with a new expiration date of January 31, 1991.

Collection Period Changes and Effective Dates:

April 1, 1984 - Sections 59-15-5 and 59-16-7 were amended to provide that the sales and use tax liability accrued during April and May must be paid on or before June 15th of each year. This requirement pertains to persons whose tax liability was: (a) $96,000 for the previous 12 month period; (b) $24,000 for the previous quarter; or (c) whose estimated tax liability is $8,000 or more per month. A specific 10% penalty is imposed on underpayment of the required prepayment or to late prepayments.

July 1, 1985 - Sections 59-15-5 and 59-16-7 changed the quarterly tax collection dates for sales and use taxes from the 30th day of the month following the end of each calendar quarter to the last day of the month following each calendar quarter.

- 1955 - The 1955 amendment also allowed additional deductions to gross income: interest on indebtedness; all taxes except social security payments, railroad retirement payments, estate, inheritance, legacy succession and gift taxes and federal income taxes. # INHERITANCE TAX

Rate or Fee Changes and Effective Dates:

The tax is:

If the net taxable estate exceeds $25,000 but is not over $25,000 but is not over $25,000	3%
If the net estate exceeds $25,000 but is not over $75,000	5%
If the net estate exceeds $75,000 but is not over $125,000	8%
If the net estate exceeds $125,000	10%

Prior to 1943 only debts of the estate were to be deducted to derive the net taxable estate.

The 1943 amendment provided certain deductions for certain gifts and for the value of property upon which estate taxes were paid 5 years prior to the decedent's death.

In 1947 a $40,000 exemption included for property inherited by husband, wife or children of the deceased. The exemptions apply to the 3, 5, and 8 percent brackets. Effective date - May 13, 1947.

The 1969 amendment included deductions for an allowance up to $5,000 for the surviving spouse or children and inserted the $40,000 exemption in Section 59-12-7 UCA. July 1, 1979.

The 1971 amendment changed the 1935 rates to those listed on the preceding page. Effective date: Where the date of death is July 1, 1971 or later.

The 1973 amendment increased the exemption to $60,000, where date of death is on or after July 1, 1973. Therefore.:

If the taxable estate was not over $35,000, the tax was 5 percent. If the taxable estate was over $35,000, but not over $85,000, the tax was $1,750 plus 8 percent of the excess over $35,000. If the taxable estate was over $85,000, the tax was $5,750 plus 10 percent of the excess over $85,000. Deductions from the gross estate were: 1) debts of the estate, 2) property market value received by the decedent upon which estate taxes were paid within five years prior to the decedent's death, 3) all gifts and contributions to the U.S., Utah or other religious, public, charitable, educational, or literary organizations, 4) an exemption of $60,000.

The 1977 amendment changed the base and rate of the inheritance tax by basing it on the credit available for state death taxes against the federal estate tax. This new law applies to all transfers of property as to which the decedent has died on January 1, 1977 or later. The former law applies to all transfers of property wherein the decedent died prior to January 1, 1977.
